JANUARY 1950

Monday 2

Louisbourg, N.S.

Clear and moderately cold with light variable winds. Mostly westerly. An ideal winter day.

Min temperature 17, max temperature 31.

Statutory Holidays

As the first of the year came on Sunday, the annual New Year Celebrations were mostly held today. All places of business were closed including the Post Office and Customs Office.

As our guests for dinner we had Betty MacMullin, James Playmate and Jack Johnson, a local character who has had Christmas and New Years dinner with us for many years. As the years go by our dinner guests are becoming fewer and fewer.

Week of Prayer Service

At 7:30 P.M. in company with Emeline, attended the first of the series of "Week of Prayer" services which began this evening and continuing until next Friday evening. The service tonight was held in the Presbyterian Church. Rev. C.C. Walls of the United Church did the service while Rev. J. T. Turner of the Anglican Church was the speaker.

JANUARY 1950

Tuesday 3

Louisbourg, N.S.

Cloudy and mild with light southwest wind. Light showers in the evening.

Min temperature 21, max temperature, 39.

Week of Prayer

At 7:30 in company with Emeline and Jane, attended the second in the series of "Week of Prayer" services. The service this evening was held in St. Bartholomew Anglican Church. Death of Lorne Michael MacLeod

The death of Lorne Michael MacLeod, 10 week old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald John MacLeod, occurred today at the home of his parents, Main Street.

JANUARY 1950

Thursday 4

Louisbourg, N.S.

Clear and very mild with light to moderate westerly winds which in the late afternoon shifted to northerly and increased to fresh. A lowering temperature in the evening would seem to indicate the extremely mild weather of the first few days is coming to an end.

Min temperature 23, max temperature 52.

Week of Prayer Service

The third in the series of "Week of Prayer" services was held in the Presbyterian Church at 7:30 P.M. The service was held by Rev. C. C. Wells, assisted by Rev. J. T. Turner, who was the speaker. Service well attended. Emeline, Evelyn and Jane attended the service but I was not present; was keeping shop.

Working in Garden

For an hour in the late afternoon I was at work spading and manuring a portion of my backyard garden preparatory to spring planting. Ground in good condition, no frost in the ground. Angle worms plentiful and near the surface of the ground.

On motion of the meeting all the Brigade Officers as stated above were re-elected. After a toast to the King and speeches by several of those present, meeting adjourned, all agreed that the meeting and supper was a decided success.

JANUARY 1950

Thursday 12

Louisbourg, N.S.

Light drizzle of snow in the early morning, mostly clear with fresh to strong northerly winds.

Min temperature 15, max temperature 25.

Visited Mr. Hiltz

This afternoon I visited my old friend, Ex-Mayor Guy B. Hiltz, who within the last two weeks has been stricken with blindness. He has visited an eye specialist at Sydney who did not appear to be able to do anything for him as far as restoring his sight is concerned. He has now made arrangements to go to Montreal for the purpose of consulting a specialist in diseases of the eye in the city.

Purchases Uniacke Estate

According to a news item in the Jan. 11 edition of the Halifax Chronicle Herald, the Provincial Government has purchased the Uniacke Estate at Mount Uniacke for a historic site. This property was originally owned by Richard John Uniacke, who was Attorney-General for Nova Scotia from 1797-1830. The house on the property is said to be 137 years old and has in it many objects of interest in the line of antique furniture. The price paid for the estate which is said to contain 2,500 acres of land, was $50,000, according to the news item. This estate is situated at Mount Uniacke, Halifax County between Halifax and Windsor.

FIRE

At about 10:30 A.M. with other members of the Fire Brigade, I responded to the fire alarm for a fire at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Boyd on Havenside Street. The fire is likely to have caught from an overheated stove pipe. It burned a little of the woodwork near where the pipe entered the chimney. The fire was quickly extinguished and the damage was slight, probably about fifty dollars.

LA GRANDE HERMINE ARRIVES

Steamer, "La Grande Hermine", Captain Gilroy arrived at about 11 A.M. and docked on the east side of the Freight Wharf. This boat has been in the coal trade with that Dominion Coal Company, for the past several years. I understand she is to lay up for a while at this port.

Canal Blocked

68 ton motor vessel, "Corrine" owned by E. Nicholas of Canso and in command of Capt. George Miesner, sank in St. Peter's canal, yesterday, while enroute from North Sydney to Canso with a cargo of 125 tons of coal. The Corrine struck ice that made a hole in her bottom. She lies in 18 feet of water and shuts off all canal traffic.

Death of John Angus MacDonald

Today's issue of the Sydney Post Record contained the death of John Angus MacDonald of Sandfield, Mira which occurred last night at the City Hospital, Sydney after a brief illness. The late Mr. MacDonald who was in the 70th year of his age, was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Neil MacDonald of Sandfield (now Huntington) Mira, where he was born and lived the greater part of his life. He was superintendent of Highways for the Cape Breton County district from 1925 to 1933 and represented District No. 3 in the County Council from 1943 to 1949. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Neil Ferguson, who lived with him. Two brothers, Dr. John MacDonald and Ex. Councillor, William A. MacDonald, predeceased him a number of years ago. As a boy I attended school with the late Mr. MacDonald, his brother and sister in the old school house at Sandfield, 1887. The teacher at that time if my memory serves me was: Miss. Hortense Huntington.

Remarkably with light variable winds, mostly southerly. An ideal day.

Min temperature 18. Max temperature 38.

Spring Birds Arrive

The Fox Sparrows and Song Sparrows put in an appearance this morning, the first I have seen this season. The Fox Sparrows usually reach here about the first of April, but this year they are much later than usual. As a rule they stay here for about three or four weeks, before continuing on their northward journey to their nesting grounds. I also saw a Robin today, the first to come to my attention this season, although they were reported in the vicinity in large numbers early this month. Grackles are also here but so far I have not seen them in a large number as usual for this time of year. The Starlings, a comparative recent addition to our bird family, remain with us all winter. There is a flock here of about twenty.

Snow Plough Arrives

A Highway Snow Plough arrived in town and widened the driveway on Main Street for the convenience of motor traffic.

As far as snow is concerned the town and surroundings have all the appearance of mid-winter. Snow is still lodged in huge banks, in places and some of the highways have not yet been opened for traffic since the storm of the 7th and 8th of this month.

Attended Music Festival Concert

At about 6:30 P.M., Emeline, James Peck and I motored to Sydney with D. F. Nicholson and attended the closing concert of the Annual Music Festival which was held in the Sydney Lyceum, with a crowded house. On the invitation of Mrs. E. Bains, Music Teacher, we visited her home where we had a sing song and a very nice lunch, before leaving for home shortly after midnight. We arrived home at 1:30 on the morning of the 28th.

Arrived From Sydney

My Clerk, Evelyn Huntington and daughter, Jane, who since last Thursday in connection with the Annual Music Festival arrived home in the evening by train. Jane sang her solo, today, "My Little White Boat" and was awarded a mark of 77. Through an error in the programme, she did not arrive in time to play her piano solo.

Shipping Ended

Louisbourg, N.S.

Mild and mostly clear, with light southerly winds.

Min temperature 30. Max temperature 51.

Planted Bulbs

This evening I planted three Auratum Lily bulbs. The Auratum is probably the finest of the lily family. Many years ago I had one stalk that had 26 blooms open at one time. Since that time my luck has changed so that for the last ten or fifteen years the Auratum with me has been almost a total failure. While the urge for gardening returns with the spring season, this year I am greatly handicapped with a sprained ankle which has been troubling me since March 2. Although nearly two months have elapsed since the accident it is still far from being back to normal and I am walking with a bad limp.

Cloudy and very chilly with a few sunny intervals. Light snow squalls during the forenoon. Fresh to strong northwest wind, moderating in the evening. A very unseasonable day. Min temperature 28. Max temperature 48.

Opened to Heavy Traffic

It would appear that the Sydney and Louisbourg highway has been opened for heavy traffic as the Highland Bus service had their heavy busses in operation on the afternoon and evening trips. As far as I am aware no announcement has been made by the highway authorities regarding the highway opening.

On March 29 the highways were closed to heavy traffic throughout the Island of Cape Breton.

Fox Sparrows

The Fox Sparrows, which this year arrived on April 17 have all disappeared having no doubt continued on their journey to their nesting grounds further north. This season they were quite plentiful. Since their arrival until the past few days we had about three dozen feeding in our back yard. I gave them all the rolled oats they could eat, of which they are very fond. When they arrive about the first of April, as they frequently do they sometimes remain with us for about four weeks before taking their departure.

Recital

At 8 P.M. in company with Emeline attended the end of the term recital of the Music pupils of Mrs. E. Barnes. The recital was held in the Navy hostel and was well attended. Jane Huntington, my niece took part in a piano solo, a vocal solo and also in one or two choruses. In addition to the programme rendered by Mrs. Barnes, Louisbourg pupils, Miss Sarah MacCormack of Sydney sang two solos and Miss. Alberta Walker, also of Sydney gave the readings. At the close of the recital, a party consisting of Mrs. Barnes, Miss MacCormack, Miss Walker, James Peck, Dan F. Nicholson, Miss Hope Gagnon and two MacCormack young men of Sydney, came to our house where we held a very enjoyable sing song until a late hour, during which a lunch was served.

New Plaster Cast

My right ankle which I sprained on March the 2nd of this year is still giving me trouble. Dr. A. L. Saunders has advised placing it in another plaster cast. In the forenoon the doctor put on part of the cast, with the intention of completing it later in the [blank]. He returned at about 10:30 P.M.

to complete the job but found that the part of the cast he had put on in the morning, was too loose owing the swelling in the ankle and leg having decreased during the day, while I was lying in bed, waiting for the cast to harden. The doctor removed the part of the cast he had put on in the morning as it was too loose to be of any service. He intends coming tomorrow morning to complete the job. I spent the entire day in bed, rather a tedious experience.

JULY 1950

Wednesday 19

Louisbourg, N. S.

Cloudy and foggy in the morning but clearing early in the forenoon. Light southwest wind, shifting to west and northwest in the forenoon. Wind increasing to moderate at times to fresh in the afternoon. Very warm. Min temperature : about 58. Max temperature : 86.

Plaster Cast Completed

At about 9:30 A.M., Dr. A. T. Saunders placed a plaster cast on my right ankle and leg. This the third cast I have had since the accident on March 2 of this year. I spent the entire day in my room the greater part of the time in bed, in order to give the plaster cast a chance to set, before attempting to walk on it. I hope to get out tomorrow if all goes right.

To Sydney and Huntington by Buses

Went to Sydney on the 10:30 A.M. trip of the Highland Lines Bus Service enroute to Huntington for the purpose of a short visit. Had lunch at "Diana Sweets" Restaurant. Made several business calls at Sydney during the afternoon. Left Sydney at 5 P.M. on the Gabarus Bus. Hugh MacDonald, driver, enroute to Marion Bridge, where Fred met me with his car and drove me to Clifford's where I will be the guest of Clifford and Maria during my visit.

Friday 24

Huntington, N.S.

Clear in the morning, but becoming hazy and later cloudy. Cleared in the late afternoon. Clear and moonlight during the night. Cold with light easterly winds. Min temperature, about 18. Max temperature 35.

Walked up to the lower end of the big meadow in the forenoon. Called at Allie's shop on the way back. While returning by way of Harry Huntington's farm, I saw a deer in Harry's field near the woods. Got my camera out and tried to get a snapshot of it. But someone with a rifle fired first, before I could get into position. The deer took to the woods, apparently unhurt, but was followed by two more shots. This proved too much for my eagerness to get a picture, so I took cover behind a pile of rocks until things quietened down. I did not see any person in connection with this incident. Lucky for me I was not in the line of fire.

NOVEMBER 1950

Saturday 25

Huntington, N. S.

Clear with light to moderate easterly winds. Cloudy in the evening. Min temperature about 26. Max temperature about 35.

Went with Fred around his mail route, which is from Marion Bridge on the south side of the Mira River to the Head of Grand Mira, returning by the north side to Marion Bridge. Left here at about 11:30 A.M. The first stop was at Marion Bridge where he picked up the mail on its arrival from Sydney. At Marion Bridge I took several snapshots of the scenery, from the south side, and also a few along the river enroute. Near Arthur Huntington's, I stopped off for the purpose of taking snaps of the old farm, while Fred continued on his way. I was not very successful with the old farm snaps owing to there being so much forest in the way. I walked back to Clifford's in the evening stopping to visit Caleb Huntington, on the way. Got back to Clifford's at about 4:30. In the evening a party gathered at Clifford's to play chess. The games lasted until near midnight. Among those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Gary Watts, Caleb Gibbons, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. George Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Huntington, Miss. Elinor Huntington, Earl Matheson, Dick Holm, Mr. Lovett, Mr. Luedy, the four latter from New Waterford. Thomas Mickelsen and Mr. Buchanan. A light lunch was served before the party dispersed.

Sunday 26

Huntington, N. S.

Cloudy and cool with moderate to fresh southeast wind. Max temperature about 40. Went for a walk in the afternoon along the road as far as Sandfield School house. Returning on the way back I cut across through the woods to the shore of the river east of Cecil Hussey's, thence westerly through Cecil's field to Clifford's, where I lay down and had an afternoon nap. Had supper with Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hussey. In the evening I was present at the regular meeting of the Young People's Union, which this evening was held at Clifford's. Late in the afternoon M. R. Chappell, a Baptist Layman from Sydney, telephones that he would be out in the evening for the purpose of holding a service in the Church. It being rather late to get the news around to the prospective congregation, it was decided that he join with the regular meeting to be held at Clifford's. Mr. Chappell was accompanied by Mr. James Kenney of Sydney and was the guest speaker at the meeting. A total of about 20 persons were present.
